

at that time; he had nothing to do with the Brielle garage.

Q Now, Mr. Stevens the other car; will you describe that.

A The next one?

Q You had another car, didn't you?

A At that time, or the one that I bought?

Q No, at that time.

A Oh, at that time the other car that Mrs. Stevens had was a Chandler seven-passenger sedan which I think she bought that summer, early that summer.

Q And did she drive that?

A She drove it.

Q Did you ever drive that car?

A Never did; I never drove any car but a Ford.

Q Then Mrs. Stevens drove that car, the Chandler, and you never did drive it?

A I never drove it; I am unable to drive any car but a Ford. I have never in my life driven a gear shift car; never have learned to do it.

Q You have never owned a gear shift car?

A Never did or never tried to drive one.

Q Now, what happened the next day?